Legal Compliance Advisory
Why Legal Compliance

- Section 205 of The Companies Act, 2013 requires the Company Secretary to report to the Board about compliance with provisions of all laws applicable to the company.
- Similar requirements are provided in Clause 49 / Corporate Governance guidelines requiring the Board to certify that structural Legal Compliance Management system is in place.
- The clause states that the Board shall periodically review reports prepared and steps initiated to rectify instances of non-compliance under all laws applicable to the company.
- Factories Act provides for penalty for Occupier and Manager of up to Rs. 200,000 and/or Imprisonment of up to 7 years for any violation/offense (Chapter X).
- For continuing offense, Occupier and Manager are liable for fine of Rs. 5,000 per day.
- Occupier necessarily needs to be a member of the Board of Directors of the company.
- Occupier/Manager may be exempt by a court only if he can show another person actually responsible for the offence, committed without his knowledge, consent or connivance and that he has exercised utmost due diligence.
- In every other act, persons in charge of and responsible to the company for the conduct of business is liable to persecution for any violation/offense.
Legal and Compliance Management - Background

- Complex Legal Environment (multiple laws, wider coverage)
- Stricter government implementation, resulting in possible criminal persecution
- Hefty penalties for non compliance
- Active Civil Society, NGOs and Activists monitoring action of corporates
- The pressure from international trading partners on compliance, specially for labour laws
- Compliance statement, signed by directors has to be submitted by the companies listed on Stock exchange every year.
- Corporate governance and social responsibility leading to expectation of compliances.

Audit Methodology

Stage 1 – CAC

- Preparation of Compliance Audit Checklist (CAC) covering all relevant laws applicable to the target unit.

Stage 2 - Visit to location

- Verification of relevant records and documents available.
- Compilation of draft report based upon findings and observations of the audit team
- Review meeting with the unit head / work directors to discussion on the finding of audit.

Stage 3 – Report

- Submission of detailed Non Compliance (NC) report to the company (Board of Directors or Compliance Head)
- Follow up with the unit to verify action taken
Audit Methodology (Contd.)

CAC:

- Divided into 4 main parts:
  - List of Registers, Abstracts, Notices, Returns
  - HR related acts and regulations
  - Engineering & Environment Laws
  - Taxation

- CAC acts as a guideline, but not as exhaustive limit for audit team

- CAC filled with reference to actual documents verified, not only based on feedback from auditee. Copies of key documents retained in working papers
Methodology (Contd.)

Report:

- Preparation of Non-Compliance list during plant visit
- Discussion of observation with Unit Head
- Inputs from Unit Head and HOD of relevant dept recorded in working papers

- Preparation of Final Audit Report consisting of:
  - Non Compliance Summary
  - Registers List – Compliance Status
  - Comparison (if possible) with previous reports to identify long-standing issues not resolved

- Impact and Criticality of Non-Compliance identified in report for each item reported
  - General Penalty for non-compliance
  - Criticality (Critical, Serious, Minor, Technical)
Benefits and Obstacles to Legal / Compliance Audits

Benefits

▲ In-house legal team is costly to maintain
▲ High attrition rate leaves gaps in In-house team and creates problems in audit
▲ In-house team, where present, is generally busy with the urgent legal matters.
▲ A external audit team is given preference in terms of time and attention then the in-house team.
▲ A external audit team will give independent and fair report.

Possible Challenges

▲ Fear of audit resulting in Non-Cooperative attitude of units
▲ Manipulation of records & Concealment of facts
▲ Fear on confidentiality of data
▲ Controlling and preventing mistakes / non-compliances between audit periods
